

BENEFIT CONCERT & WINE TASTING

Saturday, May 1, 2010

5:30 to 8:30 pm

The Smoki Museum of American Indian Art and Culture – Pueblo Room
147 N. Arizona Ave., Prescott, AZ

Treat yourself to the eclectic music festival:

- AZ Rhythm Connection Drum Circle with Frank Thompson
 - Bring your percussion instruments to jam with Frank.
- "Synaptic Soul" high energy music group from Scottsdale
- RIO Flamenco with Tony & Anna Cocilovo, Leova Mejia & Billy Deal
- Inspiring Guitarist Rita Cantu
- Native American Flute by Sunny Heartley from Sedona
- Indigenous Wisdom Slide Show: Carla Woody & Hopi elder Harold Joseph
- Handcrafted Hopi tacos and refreshments for purchase
- Silent Auction of unique fair trade items from Bali, Mexico & Peru and more . . .

Kenosis Spirit Keepers preserves indigenous wisdom as a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization.
Proceeds support:

- U.S. native people and young adults to journey to Peru & Mexico to share wisdom traditions;
- Community-building projects, Spirit Keeper Series; and
- Films of sacred rituals to raise awareness of the fragility of indigenous cultures and the importance they be sustained.

Tickets $25 in advance or $35 at the door – limited availability.

Purchase advance tickets at Adventure Travel, 130 Grove Ave., Prescott, before Friday, 4-30 by 12 noon. 771-0144.

Credit cards accepted via PayPal™ online at www.kenosispiritkeepers.org Cash and checks only accepted at the event.

Call for information: 928-778-1058.

Mollamarca Children in Peru.

Hopi-Maya Spirit Keepers Journey in Mexico.

Sharing sacred traditions.